Eligibility Criteria (please tick applicable)

To be eligible for a home, applicants must meet all of the criteria below:

- Age: Be fully eligible for New Zealand National Superannuation+ at the time of application.
- Income: Earn no more than the New Zealand National Superannuation amount from their main source of income.
- Assets: Own no more than $40,000 worth of assets ($60,000 for a couple). This includes both cash and non-cash assets as defined by New Zealand Work and Income for the Accommodation Supplement.
- Live independently: Able to live independently within an intensive housing environment. This means that you are able to look after yourself or engage and/or manage any support services that you might require, and contribute constructively to harmonious community life within a residential village.
- Housing requirement: This must be current and not a possible future need.
- Connection to the area: A familiarity necessary to enable engagement and avoid social isolation and helplessness, and where applicable it is desirable for you to maintain existing links to social agencies and services.

Please provide the following supporting documentation:

- Identification and age - birth certificate, drivers licence or passport
- Doctors consent form for each applicant - to be filled in by regular doctor to verify communal and independent living

Please Note:

Verification of assets: We may ask for full bank statements for all accounts for the last 3 months for applicants not on the Social Housing Register to determine income and asset eligibility.
